Whether students are looking for support, new friends, a place to study or listen to interesting classes, we had a nearly empty campus—this is the place for them. We’re here, we’re queer, and we are and all and, as we know and beyond, we’re a community and we’re here for everyone who needs us every day...”

Student Support
And families of the students, all are welcome and no one is ever turned away because of their sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other aspect of their identity. We work to create a safe and inclusive environment for everyone on campus, regardless of their background or identity.
